Their intention was to paint them red and blue with Marysville Monarch paw prints on the back. After discussion it was requested that they be painted blue and white with a polar bear paw print on the back to honor the Northwestern School District that was once located in Liberty Township. Jack made a motion to this effect and that Liberty Township would pay for a stencil to be made for the paws so as not to use the one used by Marysville, seconded by Jerry McClary. A vote was taken- Jack McCoy-aye, Jerry McClary-aye, Mike Moffett-aye.

The next topic of conversation was the Liberty Township Bicentennial. Jeff Rea suggested that we push the event to later in the year to have more time to plan and prepare for an event worthy of celebrating our great Township. Tentatively we will schedule the event for September 17, 2022. Jack will talk to the event planner to nail down exact costs.

Mike Moffett Made a motion to adjourn the meeting seconded by Jerry McClary. A vote was taken- Jack McCoy-aye, Jerry McClary-aye, Mike Moffett-aye.
